

Fill in the Blank with Personal Pronouns : you, he, it and they

Instructions : Your task is to select the appropriate personal pronoun (you, he, it & they) to fill in each blank. Choose the pronoun that correctly represents the subject or object of the sentence.

1. Sarah and John are coming to the party. _____ are bringing a delicious cake.
2. Tom wants to buy a new car, but _____ is still saving money for it.
3. Can _____ please pass me the salt and pepper?
4. The dog chased its tail because _____ was bored.
5. James and Maria are excellent chefs; _____ make the best pasta dishes.
6. The birds in the park are so colorful; _____ have beautiful plumage.

Answers Personal Pronoun

1. They
2. he
3. you
4. it
5. they
6. they

Explanation Personal Pronoun

1. "They" is used because it refers to Sarah and John, who are bringing the cake.
2. "He" is the correct pronoun to refer to Tom, the singular subject.
3. "You" is the correct choice when asking someone to pass something.
4. "It" refers to the dog, which is a singular noun.
5. "They" is used because James and Maria together make the best pasta dishes.
6. "They" is used to refer to the plural noun "birds" in the park.